

UNITED STATES GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION
NOTICE OF DETERMINATION OF HOMELESS SUITABILITY
AND AVAILABILITY AND
NOTICE OF SURPLUS DETERMINATION FOR FEDERAL REAL PROPERTY

APRIL 14, 2011

1LT A.J. ELLISON USARC
100 Anderson Avenue, Madison County, Wood River, Illinois
GSA Control Number 1-D-IL-738
HUD Number: 54201110012

Notice is hereby given that the subject property has been determined suitable and available by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for homeless use. Since no further Federal requirement exists, the subject property has been made available for homeless use by the General Services Administration (GSA) and was published in the Federal Register on Friday, March 11, 2011; Volume 76, Number 48, Pages 13425-13426. The property is being screened for sixty (60) days from the date of this notice for expressions of interest from qualified homeless providers in accordance with the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act, as amended. If no expressions of interest for homeless use are received within the specified timeframe, then the property will be considered for disposal as surplus property according to the regulations cited on the following page.

The property consists of two (2) buildings on 4.01 acres of fee-owned land. A one story 17,199 square feet administration building constructed of concrete block and covered by brick veneer and a 3,713 square feet one story maintenance shop (garage).

Under Title V of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act (McKinney Act)(42 U.S.C. 11411), as amended, public bodies and eligible nonprofit organizations concerned with providing assistance to the homeless may apply to lease Government property determined suitable by HUD for homeless use. Also, States and their political subdivisions and instrumentalities, tax-supported institutions, and nonprofit institutions which have been held exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the 1954 Internal Revenue Code may apply to acquire Government property determined suitable by HUD for homeless use under Section 203(k) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended. Interested parties will have 60 days from the above date to submit a written expression of interest and obtain necessary application forms from the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Public bodies and eligible nonprofit organizations wishing to apply for the property should contact:

Such written notice shall:

- 1) disclose the contemplated use of the property;
- 2) contain a citation of the applicable statute under which the public agency desires to procure the property;
- 3) disclose the nature of the interest less than fee title to the property is contemplated;
- 4) state the length of time required to develop and submit a formal application for the property (where a payment to the Government is required under the statute, include a statement as to whether funds are available and, if not, the period required to obtain funds); and
- 5) give the reason for the time required to develop and submit a formal application.

Upon receipt of the written notice, the public agency shall be promptly informed concerning the period of time that will be allowed for submission of the formal application.

In the absence of a written notice, or in the event a public use proposal is not approved, the regulations issued pursuant to authority contained in the Property Act as amended, provide for offering the property for sale according to its highest and best use.

If any public agency considers that the proposed disposal of the property is incompatible with its development plans and programs, notice of such incompatibility must be forwarded to the Regional Administrator, U.S. General Services Administration, 230 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois 60604.
